

NATIONAL COURT RULES 1983

Explanatory Notes

The National Court Rules were made by the Judges in 1983. Though amended on a number of occasions, the Rules have not been repealed and replaced (unlike the Supreme Court Rules 1984, which were repealed and replaced by the Supreme Court Rules 2012).

The National Court Rules are divided into eight Parts:

Part 1 – Preliminary (Orders 1 and 2);

Part 2 – Civil jurisdiction (Orders 3 to 17);

Part 3 – Appellate jurisdiction (Order 18);

Part 4 – Probate jurisdiction (Order 19);

Part 5 – Family matters jurisdiction (Order 20);

Part 6 – Admiralty (Order 21);

Part 7 – Costs (Order 22); and Part 8 – Human rights (Order 23).

Within the eight Parts are 24 Orders, numbered 1 to 23 (including Order 10A (National Court (Commercial List) Rules), and some of the Orders are divided into Divisions.

It is customary, when referring to a provision of the Rules, to refer to only the Order number and rule number, without referring to the Part or Division in which the rule is located, eg you would refer to Order 12 rule 40, without mentioning that it is in Part 2 or in Division 12.4 of the Rules.

The National Court Rules were substantially amended in 2005 when the Judges made a “package” of new Rules: the National Court Appeal Rules 2005, the National Court Commercial List Rules 2005, the National Court Judicial Review Rules 2005, the National Court Listing Rules 2005 and the National Court Motions Rules 2005. None of these Rules created a new set of Rules. They each amended the National Court Rules 1983. Likewise with the Human Rights Rules 2010. Though often referred to as the Human Rights Rules, they are not a separate set of Rules; they are more correctly referred to as Order 23 (human rights) of the National Court Rules.

Special care should be taken when referring to the rules relating to listing of trials, introduced by the Listing Rules 2005. They are found in Order 10, in the new rule 9A, and are rather complex. For example, if you need to refer to the jurisdictional basis of an application by a defendant for summary disposal of a matter for want of prosecution, you would refer to Order 10 rule 9A(15)(1)(a) and (2)(a) of the National Court Rules. You would not refer to rule 9A(15)(1)(a) and (2)(a) of the Listing Rules.

The National Court Rules have been made by the Judges under s 184 (rules of court) of the Constitution. Other Rules made by the Judges under that provision, which exist as separate sets of Rules of Court, are:

- the ADR Rules 2022;
- the Bail Rules 2021;
- the Court Reporting Rules 2022;
- the Criminal Practice Rules 2022;
- the Defence Force Proceedings Rules 2021;
- the Election Petition Rules 2017;
- the Matrimonial Causes Rules 2022; and
- the Supreme Court Rules 2012.

Note that the Companies Rules Chapter No 146 of Revised Laws, also exist as a separate set of Rules, however, they have not been made by the Judges under s 184 of the Constitution. The Companies Rules are derived from the Companies Act Chapter 146; and though that Act was repealed by the Companies Act 1997, the Companies Rules continue in force by virtue of s 440(3) of the Companies Act 1997.

The most recent amendments to the National Court Rules were made by the National Court (Miscellaneous Amendments) Rules 2021, which commenced operation on 1 November 2021. Those Rules amended Order 12 rule 6(2) to reflect the changes in interest rates applicable to the State effected by the Judgments (Interest on Debts and Damages) Act 2015 and introduced a new Division 2.8 (court dress) and a new Division 2.9 (practice directions). Those amendments are included in the Rules published in this volume.

This consolidation states the National Court Rules 1983 as at 17 May 2024.

A hard copy of these Rules, which has been published in “the National Court Book”, is available for purchase from the Waigani Court Library. Please contact Mr Johannes Fege on email jfege@pngjudiciary.gov.pg.

2. Joinder of parties generally (8/2)

Two or more persons may be joined as plaintiffs or defendants in any proceedings—

- (a) where—
 - (i) if separate proceedings were brought by or against each of them, as the case may be, some common question of law or of fact would arise in all the proceedings; and

- (b) where the Court gives leave to do so.

3. Joint right (8/3)

(1) Where, in any proceedings, the plaintiff claims relief to which any other person is entitled jointly with him—

- (a) all persons so entitled shall be parties to the action; and
- (b) any of them who do not consent to being joined as a plaintiff shall be made a defendant.

(2) Sub-rule (1) applies subject to any Act and applies unless the Court gives leave to the contrary.

4. Leave under Rules 1, 2 and 3 (8/4)

(1) The Court may grant leave under Rule 1 or 2 before or after the joinder and may grant leave under Rule 3(2) before or after the non-joinder.

(2) A plaintiff may apply for leave under Rule 1, 2 or 3(2) before or after filing his originating process and may apply without serving notice of the motion on any person on whom the originating process has not been served.

5. Common liability (8/5)

(1) Where, in any proceedings, relief is claimed against a defendant who is jointly liable with some other person and also severally liable, that other person need not be made a defendant to the proceedings.

(2) Where persons are jointly, but not severally, liable under a contract, and relief is claimed against some but not all of those persons in proceedings in respect of that contract, the Court may, on the application of any defendant to the proceedings, by order stay the proceedings until the other persons so liable are added as defendants.

6. Inconvenient joinder (8/6)

Where any joinder of parties or causes of action may embarrass or delay trial of the proceedings or is otherwise inconvenient, the Court may order separate trials or make such other order as the Court thinks fit.

7. Misjoinder and non-joinder of parties (8/7)

(1) Proceedings shall not be defeated by reason of the misjoinder of a party or the non-joinder of any person as a party.

(2) The Court may in any proceedings determine the issues or questions in dispute so far as they affect the rights and interests of the parties.

8. Addition of parties (8/8)

(1) Where a person who is not a party—

(a) ought to have been joined as a party; or

(b) is a person whose joinder as a party is necessary to ensure that all matters in dispute in the proceedings may be effectually and completely determined and adjudicated on, the Court, on application by him or by any party or of its own motion, may, on terms, order that he be added as a party and make orders for the further conduct of the proceedings.

(2) A person shall not be added as plaintiff without his consent.

Order 5, Rule 9

(3) Without limiting the generality of sub-rule (1), where a person not a party to proceedings for possession of land is in possession (by himself or by a tenant) of the whole or any part of the land, the Court, on application by him, may, on terms, order that he be added as a defendant and make orders for the further conduct of the proceedings.

9. Removal of parties (8/9)

Where a party—

- (a) has been improperly or unnecessarily joined; or
- (b) has ceased to be a proper or necessary party, the Court, on application by any party or of its own motion, may, on terms, order that he cease to be a party and make orders for the further conduct of the proceedings.

10. Death, transmission, etc (8/10)

(1) Where a party dies or becomes bankrupt but a cause of action in the proceedings survives, the proceedings shall not abate by reason of the death or bankruptcy.

(2) Where the interest or liability of a party passes by assignment, transmission, devolution or otherwise to another person, the Court may make orders for the addition, removal or rearrangement of parties and may make orders for the further conduct of the proceedings.

(3) The Court may act under sub-rule (2) on application by a party or by a person to whom the interest or liability passes or of its own motion.

(2) Where the Court orders that a party be substituted for another party or a former party, all things done in the proceedings before the making of the order shall, unless the Court otherwise orders, have effect in relation to the new party as those things had effect in relation to the old, but notice of intention to defend by the old party shall not dispense with notice of intention to defend by the new.

(3) Subject to sub-rule (2), where a party is added pursuant to an order under Rule 8 or 10, the date of commencement of the proceedings so far as concerns him shall be the date of filing of the originating process amended so as to add him as a party or, where an amended originating process is not filed, the date of the amendment adding him as a party.

12. Failure to proceed after death of party (8/12)

(1) Where—

- (a) a party dies but a cause of action in the proceedings survives his death; and
- (b) an order under Rule 10 for the addition of a party in substitution for the deceased party is not made within three months after the death, the Court may, on application by a party or by a person to whom liability on the cause of action survives on the death, order that, unless, within a specified time after service of the order in accordance with sub-rule (2), a party is added in substitution for the deceased party, the proceedings be dismissed so far as concerns relief on the cause of action for or against the person to whom the cause of action or the liability thereon, as the case may be, survives on the death.

(2) On making an order under sub-rule (1), the Court shall give such directions as it thinks fit for service of the order on the persons (whether parties or not) interested in continuing the proceedings.

13. Representation; current interests (8/13)

(1) Where numerous persons have the same interest in any proceedings the proceedings may be commenced, and, unless the Court otherwise orders, continued, by or against any one or more of them as representing all or as representing all except one or more of them.

(2) At any stage of proceedings pursuant to this Rule the Court, on the application of the plaintiff, may, on terms, appoint any one or more of the defendants or other persons (as representing whom the defendants are sued) to represent all, or all except one or more, of those persons in the proceedings.

(3) Where, under sub-rule (2), the Court appoints a person who is not a defendant, the Court shall make an order under Rule 8 adding him as a defendant.

(4) A judgement entered or order made in proceedings pursuant to this Rule shall be binding on all the persons as representing whom the plaintiffs sue or the defendants are sued, as the case may be, but shall not be enforced against any person not a party to the proceedings except with the leave of the Court.

Order 5, Rule 14

(5) An application for leave under sub-rule (4) shall be made by motion, notice of which shall be served personally on the person against whom it is sought to enforce the judgement or order.

(6) Notwithstanding that a judgement or order to which an application under Sub-rule (5) relates is binding on the person against whom the application is made, that person may dispute liability to have the judgement or order enforced against him on the ground that by reason of facts and matters particular to his case he is entitled to be exempted from the liability.

(7) This Rule does not apply to proceedings concerning—

- (b) property subject to a trust; or
- (c) the construction of a written instrument, including an Act,

the Court, if satisfied that one or more of the conditions specified in sub-rule (2) are satisfied, may appoint one or more persons to represent any person (including an unborn person) or class of persons who is or may be interested (whether presently or for any future, contingent or unascertained interest) in, or affected by, the proceedings.

(2) The conditions for the exercise of the power conferred by sub-rule (1) are—

- (a) that the person, the class of persons or some member of the class, cannot be ascertained or cannot readily be ascertained; and
- (b) that the person, class of persons or some member of the class, though ascertained, cannot be found; and
- (c) that, though the person or the class of persons and the members of the class can be ascertained and found, it appears to the Court expedient (regard being had to all the circumstances, including the amount at stake and the degree of difficulty of the point to be determined) to exercise the power for the purpose of saving expense.

(3) Where in any proceedings the Court exercises the power conferred by sub-rule (1), a judgement or order entered or made in the proceedings shall be binding on the person or class of persons represented as if he or they were parties.

Order 5, Rule 16

(4) Where, in any such proceedings as are referred to in sub-rule (1), a compromise is proposed and some of the persons who are interested in, or who may be affected by, the compromise are not parties to the proceedings (including unborn or unascertained persons) but—

- (a) there is a party in the same interest who assents to the compromise or on whose behalf the Court sanctions the compromise; or
- (b) the absent persons are represented by a person appointed under sub-rule (1) and he so assents, the Court, if satisfied that the compromise will be for the benefit of the absent persons, may approve the compromise and order that it shall be binding on the absent persons, and they shall be bound accordingly except where the order has been obtained by fraud or non-disclosure of material facts.

15. Trustee, etc (8/15)

(1) Where any proceedings, including proceedings to enforce a security by way of foreclosure or otherwise, are brought by or against a trustee, executor or administrator—

- (a) it shall not be necessary to join as a party any of the persons having a beneficial interest under the trust or in the estate; and
- (b) a judgement or order in the proceedings shall, subject to sub-rule (2), be as binding on those persons as it is on the trustee, executor or administrator.

(2) Where a judgement is entered or an order is made in proceedings to which sub-rule (1) applies and it appears to the Court that in those proceedings the trustee, executor or administrator could not or did not in fact represent the interests of the persons having a beneficial interest under the trust or in the estate, the Court may, in those or other proceedings, order, on terms, that the judgement so entered or the order so made shall not be binding on those persons.

(3) Sub-rule (1) does not limit the power of the Court to order the addition of parties under Rule 8.

16. Deceased person (8/16)

(1) Where in any proceedings it appears to the Court that a deceased person was interested, or that the estate of a deceased person is interested, in any matter in question in the proceedings and that he has no personal representative, the Court may, on the application of any party—

- (a) order that the proceedings continue in the absence of a person representing the estate of the deceased person; or

Order 5, Rule 17

(b) by order (with the consent of the person appointed) appoint a person to represent that estate for the purposes of the proceedings.

(2) An order under sub-rule (1), and any judgement or order subsequently entered or made in the proceedings, shall bind the estate of the deceased person to the same extent as the estate would have been bound had a personal representative of the deceased person been a party to the proceedings.

(3) Before making an order under this Rule, the Court may require notice of the application for the order to be given to such (if any) of the persons having an interest in the estate as it thinks fit.

17. Conduct (8/17)

- (2) This Division applies to proceedings commenced by writ of summons.
- (3) Subject to Rule 11, this Division applies to proceedings commenced by originating summons to such extent and with such modifications as the Court may direct.

11. Time and place of trial (34/4)

- (1) Where proceedings have been set down for trial under Division 1 for a specified date, the trial may be held on that or any later date.
- (2) Notwithstanding sub-rule (1) and notwithstanding the setting down of any proceedings for trial under Division 1, the Court may make such orders as it thinks fit for fixing the time and place of trial.

12. Absence of party (34/5)

- (1) If, when a trial is called on, any party is absent, the Court may, on terms—
 - (a) order that the trial be not held unless the proceedings are again set down for trial, or unless such other steps are taken as the Court may direct; or
 - (b) proceed with the trial generally or so far as concerns any claim for relief in the proceedings; or
 - (c) adjourn the trial.
- (2) Where the Court proceeds with a trial in the absence of a party, and at or at the conclusion of the trial a verdict is given or a finding or assessment is made, the Court, on motion by that party, may, on terms, set aside or vary the verdict, finding or assessment, and may give directions for the further conduct of the proceedings.
- (3) A motion under sub-rule (2) must be made on notice and the notice must be filed and served not more than seven days after the giving of the verdict or the making of the finding or assessment.

13. Conduct of trial (34/6)

- (1) The Court may give directions as to the order of evidence and addresses and generally as to the conduct of the trial.

(2) Subject to sub-rule (1)—

(b) in any other case, the order of evidence and addresses shall be as provided by this Rule, subject to such modifications as the nature of the case may require.

(3) The beginning party may make an address opening his case and may then adduce his evidence.

(4) Where, at the conclusion of the evidence for the beginning party, no document or thing has been admitted in evidence on tender by the opposite party, the opposite party may elect to adduce evidence or not to adduce evidence.

(2) Where the ground of a defendant's motion under sub-rule (1) is established, the Court may direct the entry of judgement for the defendant accordingly.

(3) Where a defendant's motion under sub-rule (1) is refused, the defendant may not, without leave of the Court, adduce evidence in the proceedings or on the claim for relief in question, as the case may be.

(4) The Court may order that a person to whom it grants leave to intervene in an action shall, within such period as may be specified in the order, serve on every other party to the action such pleading as may be so specified.

18. Preliminary acts (UK 75/18)

(1) In an action to enforce a claim for damage, loss of life or personal injury arising out of a collision between ships, unless the Court otherwise orders, the plaintiff must, within two months after issue of the writ and the defendant must, within two months after entering a notice of intention to defend in the action, and before any pleading is served, lodge in the registry a document (in these Rules referred to as a "preliminary act") containing a statement of—

- (a) the names of the ships which came into collision and their ports of registry; and
- (b) the date and time of the collision; and
- (c) the place of the collision; and
- (d) the direction and force of the wind; and
- (e) the state of the weather; and
- (f) the state, direction and force of the tidal or other current; and
- (g) the course steered and speed through the water of the ship when the other ship was first seen or immediately before any measures were taken with reference to her presence, whichever was the earlier; and
- (h) the lights (if any) carried by the ship; and
 - (i) the distance and bearing of the other ship if and when her echo was first observed by radar; and
 - (ii) the distance, bearing and approximate heading of the other ship when first seen; and
- (j) what light or combination of lights (if any) of the other ship was first seen; and

Order 21, Rule 19

- (k) what other lights or combinations of lights (if any) of the other ship were subsequently seen before the collision, and when; and
- (l) what alterations (if any) were made to the course and speed of the ship after the earlier of the two times referred to in paragraph (g) up to the time of the collision, and when, and what measures (if any), other than alterations of course or speed, were taken to avoid the collision, and when; and
- (m) the parts of each ship which first came into contact and the approximate angle between the two ships at the moment of contact; and
- (n) what sound signals (if any) were given, and when; and
- (o) what sound signals (if any) were heard from the other ship, and when.

(2) Every preliminary act shall be sealed by the proper officer and shall be filed in a closed envelope (stamped with an official stamp showing the date of filing) and, unless the Court otherwise orders, no envelope shall be opened until the pleadings are closed and a consent signed by each of the parties or his solicitor to the opening of the preliminary acts is filed with the proper officer.

(3) Where the Court orders the preliminary acts to be opened, the Court may further order the action to be tried without pleadings but, where the Court orders the action to be so tried, any party who intends to rely on the defence of compulsory pilotage must give notice of his intention to do so to the other parties within seven days after the opening of the preliminary acts.

(4) Where the Court orders the action to be tried without pleadings, it may also order each party, within such period as may be specified in the order, to file a statement of the grounds on which he charges any other party with negligence in connection with the collision and to serve a copy on that other party.

(5) Order 8 Rule 3 shall not apply to an action in which preliminary acts are required but, unless the Court orders the action to be tried without pleadings, the plaintiff must serve a statement of claim on each defendant within 14 days after the latest date on which the preliminary act of any party to the action is filed.

19. Failure to lodge preliminary act: proceedings against party in default (UK 75/19)

(1) Where in an action referred to in Rule 18(1) the plaintiff fails to lodge a preliminary act within the prescribed period, any defendant who has lodged such an act may apply to the Court by motion for an order to dismiss the action, and the Court may by order dismiss the action or make such other order on such terms as it thinks just.

Order 21, Rule 20

(2) Where in an action referred to in sub-rule (1), being an action in personam, a defendant fails to lodge a preliminary act within the prescribed period, Order 12 Rule 26 shall apply as if the defendant's failure to lodge the preliminary act within that period were a failure by him to serve a notice of intention to defend on the plaintiff within the period fixed by or under these Rules for service and the plaintiff, if he has lodged a preliminary act may accordingly enter judgement against that defendant in accordance with Order 12 Rule 26.

(3) Where in such an action, being an action in rem, a defendant fails to lodge a preliminary act within the prescribed period, the plaintiff, if he has lodged such an act, may apply to the Court by motion for judgement against that defendant, and it shall not be necessary for the plaintiff to file or serve a statement of claim or an affidavit before the hearing of the motion.

(4) On the hearing of a motion under sub-rule (3) the Court may make such order as it thinks just, and where the defendant does not appear on the hearing and the Court is of opinion that judgement should be given for the plaintiff provided he proves his case, it shall order the plaintiffs preliminary act to be opened and require the plaintiff to satisfy the Court that his claim is well founded and the plaintiffs evidence may, unless the Court otherwise orders, be given by affidavit without any order or direction.

(5) Where the plaintiff in accordance with a requirement under sub-rule (4) satisfies the Court that his claim is well founded, the Court may give judgement for the claim with or without a reference to the Registrar and may at the same time order the property against which the action is brought to be appraised and sold and the proceeds to be paid into Court or make such order as it thinks just.

(6) The Court may, on such terms as it thinks just, set aside any judgement entered under this Rule.

(7) In this Rule references to the prescribed period shall be construed as references to the period within which by virtue of Rule 18(1) or of any order of the Court the plaintiff or defendant, as the context of the reference requires, is required to lodge a preliminary act.

20. Special provisions as to pleadings in collision, etc, actions (UK 75/20)

(1) Notwithstanding anything in Order 8 Rules 4 and 5, the plaintiff in any action referred to in Rule 2(1)(a) may not serve a reply or a defence to counterclaim on the defendant except with the leave of the Court.

(2) If in such an action there is a counterclaim and no defence to counterclaim by the plaintiff, then, notwithstanding Order 8 Rule 21, there is an implied joinder of issue on the counterclaim, and the joinder of issue operates as a denial of every material allegation of fact made in the counterclaim.

21. Judgement by default (UK 75/21)

(1) Where a writ is served under Rule 8(4) on a party at whose instance a caveat against arrest was issued, then if—

- (a) the sum claimed in the action begun by the writ does not exceed the amount specified in the undertaking given by that party or his solicitor to procure the entry of the caveat; and
- (b) that party or his solicitor does not within 14 days after service of the writ fulfil the undertaking given by him, the plaintiff may, after filing an affidavit verifying the facts on which the action is based, apply to the Court for judgement by default.

(2) Judgement given under sub-rule (1) may be enforced by the arrest of the property against which the action was brought and by committal of the party at whose instance the caveat with respect to that property was entered.

(3) Where a defendant to an action in rem fails to enter a Notice of Intention to Defend within the time limited then, on the expiration of 14 days after service of the writ and on filing an affidavit proving due service of the writ, an affidavit verifying the facts on which the action is based and, if a statement of claim was not endorsed on the writ, a copy of the statement of claim, the plaintiff may apply to the Court for judgement by default.

(3A) Where the writ is deemed to have been duly served on the defendant by virtue of Order 6 Rule 8 or was served on a registrar under Rule 8 of this Order, an affidavit proving due service of the writ need not be filed under this sub-rule, but the writ endorsed under Order 6 Rule 8 or endorsed by the Registrar with a statement that he accepts service of the writ must be lodged with the affidavit verifying the facts on which the action is based.

(4) Where a defendant to an action in rem fails to serve a defence on the plaintiff, then, after the expiration of the period fixed by or under these Rules for service of the defence and on filing an affidavit stating that no defence was served on him by that defendant during that period, an affidavit verifying the facts on which the action is based and, if a statement of claim was not endorsed on the writ, a copy of the statement of claim, the plaintiff may apply to the Court for judgement by default.

(5) Where a defendant to a counterclaim in an action in rem fails to serve a defence to counterclaim on the defendant making the counterclaim, then, subject to sub-rule (6), after the expiration of the period fixed by or under these Rules for service of the defence to counterclaim and on filing an affidavit stating that no defence to counterclaim was served on him by the first-mentioned defendant during that period, an affidavit verifying the facts on which the counterclaim is based and a copy of the counterclaim, the defendant making the counterclaim may apply to the Court for judgement by default.

Order 21, Rule 22

(6) An application may not be made under sub-rule (5) against the plaintiff in any action referred to in Rule 2(1)(a).

(7) An application to the Court under this Rule must be made by motion and if, on the hearing of the motion, the Court is satisfied that the applicant's claim is well founded it may give judgement for the claim with or without a reference to the Registrar and may at the same time order the property against which the action or, as the case may be, counterclaim is brought to be appraised and sold and the proceeds to be paid into Court or may make such other order as it thinks just.

(8) In default actions in rem evidence may, unless the Court otherwise orders, be given by affidavit without any order or direction.

(9) The Court may, on such terms as it thinks just, set aside or vary any judgement entered under this Rule.

(10) Order 12 Division 3 shall not apply to actions in rem.

22. Order for sale of ship: determination of priority claims (UK 75/22)

(b) in any other case, after obtaining judgement,

(3) The notice referred to in sub-rule (2)(c) must state—

- (c) that the order of priority of the claims against the proceeds will not be determined until after the expiration of the period (specifying it) specified in the order for sale; and

(5) On the taxation of the marshal's account relating to a sale, any person interested in the proceeds of the sale shall be entitled to be heard, and any decision of a registrar made on the taxation to which objection is taken may be reviewed in the same manner and by the same persons as any decision of a registrar made in taxation proceedings under Order 22.

(2) Where a party is required by Rules 8(3), 10(3), 13(7) or 23(3) to give to the marshal an undertaking to pay any fees or expenses, the marshal may accept instead of an undertaking the deposit with him of such sum as he considers reasonable to meet those fees and expenses.

(7) If on the hearing or resumed hearing of the motion the Judge does not make a decree limiting the plaintiff's liability, he shall give such directions as to the further proceedings in the action as appear to him to be appropriate including, in particular, a direction requiring the taking out of a notice of motion for directions under Order 4 Division 5.

- (a) need not be advertised; but
- (b) shall only operate to protect the plaintiff in respect of claims by the persons so named or persons claiming through or under them.

(2) In any case not falling within sub-rule (1), any decree in the action limiting the plaintiff's liability (whether made by a Judge or on the trial of the action)—

- (a) shall be advertised by the plaintiff in such manner and within such time as may be provided by the decree; and
- (b) shall fix a time within which persons with claims against the plaintiff in respect of the casualty to which the action relates may enter a notice of intention to defend the action (if they have not already done so) and file their claims, and, in cases to which Rule 39 applies, take out a notice of motion if they think fit, to set the order aside.

Order 21, Rule 39

(3) The advertisement to be required under sub-rule (2)(a) shall, unless for special reasons the Judge thinks fit otherwise to provide, be a single advertisement in each of two newspapers specified in the decree, identifying the action, the casualty and the relation of the plaintiff (whether as owner of a ship involved in the casualty or otherwise as the case may be), stating that the decree has been made and specifying the amounts fixed as the limits of the plaintiff's liability and the time allowed for the entry of notice of intention to defend, the filing of claims and the taking out of motions to set the decree aside and the plaintiff must within the time fixed under sub-rule (2)(b) file in the registry a copy of each newspaper in which the advertisement required under sub-rule (2)(a) appears.
